

Duxbury Clipper, Wednesday, September 17, 1997

Community Garden Club Town Beautification

The Community Garden Club of Duxbury Town Beautification Committee includes Barbara Heether, Andrea Geldmacher and Katie Cullen. They recruited volunteers this summer to plant and water flowers at the Nash Garden at King Caesar House, the decorative planters at Town Hall, the town's islands and the Halls Corner flagpole. Many Duxbury citizens have shown their appreciation for this work by thanking the volunteers as they drive by.

Julie Lizza volunteered her time to care for the pretty island at Bailey's Corner.

Sheila Barnwell and Joanne Williams by some well tended flowers at the Flag Pole at Halls Corner.

The Millbrook Corner volunteers were Betsy Lord, Natalie Goodrich, and Phyllis Frazar.

Robin Markella, Susan Brown, Tommie Vickers, Cheryl Tufankjian, and Dawn Murphy (not pictured) volunteered at Rtes. 14 and 139.

Millie Winston volunteered to care for the container garden at Lincoln and West Sts.

The King Caesar Nash garden was tended by Carmella Goddard (left), Andrea Geldmacher with "Izzie" (middle), Theresa Hannan (right), Kitt Clapp, Elizabeth Trehu, Mary Beth Nixon, Lynn Smith, Sandra Dangona, and Cathy Sprole.

Barbara Heether kept the arrangements at the foot of the steps at Town Hall.